

A Day @ the Museum: Day Camps

Information for parents & campers

Our Day @ the Museum: Day Camps will provide your child with a fun way to spend the day during a teacher in-service day (PD day). Every camp will consist of a theme based art craft, several indoor and outdoor activities, and time in the galleries to explore.

Our camps follow the below schedule:

8:30-9 am	Camp drop off
9-9:30 am	Introductions, rules, ice breakers
9:30 am-12 pm	Theme based art/museum activities Mid-morning snack/break (approx. 10:30 am)
12-12:30 pm	Lunch
12:30-2:45 pm	Movement (outdoor activities), games, theme based activities Mid-afternoon snack/break (approx. 2:45 pm)
3-4:30 pm	Theme based activity/time in galleries & Camp pick up

No early drop off/late pick up available. Children are to be dropped off 8:30-9 am & picked up 4-4:30 pm.

Children need to bring:

- Food for lunch and 2 snacks
 Important: our summer camps are peanut/nut free. Ensure the lunch & snacks provided for your child do not contain peanuts or nuts. Additionally, please pack lunches that do not require refrigeration or heating.*
- Water bottle labelled with child's first & last name
- Seasonally appropriate dress for being outside – we plan to go outdoors unless there's extreme weather
- Any medications that are needed
- Sunscreen* and bug spray (*spray preferred)
- Running shoes – for walking and games
- NO ELECTRONICS – keep them at home where they are safe
- Extra set of clothing (art can be messy!) Note: we have disposable aprons.

Museum Manners & Camp Safety

- Walk only (no running). Use inside voices.
- Food/drink* are not permitted in the exhibition spaces. (*water bottles are allowed)
- Practice respiratory etiquette (e.g coughing/sneezing into bent elbow, washing hands and disposing of used tissues immediately).
- For the safety of art and artefacts, look with your eyes, not your hands.
- Treat other campers, and the museum and gallery spaces, with respect.
- Cooperate with others (bullying and fighting will not be tolerated).
- Listen to your leaders and other participants.
- Stay with the group at all times, and at a safe distance.

If your child is exhibiting any signs of illness leading up to or during the camp, please do not bring them to the museum. Notify us by phone at 587.797.4040.
