The Peasants

Directed by Dk Welchman & Hugh Welchman | Poland, Serbia, Lithuania | 114 min | Polish | Mongrel Media
From the directors of LOVING VINCENT and based on the Nobel Prize-winning novel of the same title, THE PEASANTS is a cinematic pageant about a 19th-century Polish village where a beautiful maiden, Jagna, marries a windowed landowner while nursing a burning love for his son. Set in the God-fearing village of Lipce and told through the seasons and cyclical rituals of ploughing, planting, and harvest, Jagna's fate is all but sealed when she breaks one of the few societal taboos.

Perfect Days

Directed by Wim Wenders | Japan | 124 mins | Japanese, English | Elevation Pictures

Hirayama (Kôji Yakusho) lives alone in a small house full of plants in a neighbourhood of tiny cafes frequented by the same people, where his days go by according to quiet rhythms that never seem to change. He speaks very little, has a great passion for music and books, and is fascinated by the trees he loves to photograph. Then, a series of unexpected encounters gradually reveals his past. PERFECT DAYS captures the poetry of the everyday with intimacy and stunning simplicity.

Two teenagers, Seydou (Seydou Sarr) and his cousin Moussa (newcomer Moustapha Fall), leave their home in Dakar in pursuit of a dream called Europe. 500 Days in the Wild

Directed by Dianne Whelan | Canada | 124 mins | English | Elevation Pictures

Beginning on July 1, 2015, in St. John's, Newfoundland, award-winning director and cinematographer Dianne Whelan set out on an epic journey of discovery: hiking, biking, paddling, snowshoeing, and skiing across Canada. The journey was sometime gruelling, occasionally harrowing, often exhilarating, and always surprising. She started out alone, disillusioned with the state of the world, and ended her trek on August 1, 2021 in Victoria BC, a bit wiser, more hopeful, in love, and with a passion to share this story.

Uproar

Directed by Paul Middleditch & Hamish Bennett | New Zealand | 110 mins | English, Maori | Photon Films
Josh Waaka (Julian Dennison), age 17, is content to let life happen around him. Since the death of his father, things haven't been bright at home. His older brother, Jamie (James Rolleston), is numb after a rugby injury, and their mom, Shirley (Minnie Drivers), spends most of her time at work. When one of Josh's teachers pushes Josh to audition for drama school, he opens up to new ways of looking at the world, while a battle for the nation's identity rages in his community.
